about the book an unflinching look at one of india s most fascinating figures the public intellectual and diplomat who helped shape a post colonial india k m panikkar was a multifaceted man one of india s first public intellectuals as india won its independence his imprint is all over india s colonial and post colonial history from constitutional reform in the princely states where he was a strong advocate for india s current federal model to charting india s maritime policy as a free country he believed in an essential hindu culture that held his land together yet he was a committed secularist he was gandhi s emissary and the founder of the hindustan times he was independent india s first and most controversial ambassador to both nationalist china and the people s republic of china he was nehru s man in cairo and france and a member of the states reorganisation commission he had enemies in the cia as well as in india s own ministry of external affairs he frustrated his admirers as much as he provoked their reluctant respect from the british raj to the constituent assembly across two world wars and an ensuing cold war k m panikkar was india s go to man in all seasons through it all he never stopped writing on indian identity nationalism history and foreign policy material that remains as relevant today as it was seven decades ago yet about the man himself strangely little is known in a man for all seasons narayani basu bridges that gap drawing on panikkar s formidable body of work as well as on archival material from india to england from paris to china and from israel to the united nations as well as on first time interviews with panikkar s family basu presents a vivid irresistibly engaging portrait of this most enigmatic of india s founding fathers featuring a formidable cast of characters from jawaharlal nehru mahatma gandhi and sardar patel to zhou enlai chairman mao and gamal abdel nasser a man for all seasons is as much a sweeping history of a young india finding its place in the world as it is the story of a man who was impossible to ignore then and remains so now this bilingual collection illustrates the concept of the warrior of the imaginary as defined by patrick chamoiseau in a multi faceted corpus of texts francophone contributions explore the role of the caribbean writer in works by chamoiseau Édouard glissant daniel maximin and joseph zobel essays in english focus not only on familiar writers dionne brand edwidge danticat wilson harris jamaica kincaid caryl phillips derek walcott but also on less widely studied voices robert antoni albert helman other contributions deal with such fighting areas as afro brazilian music film and mutabaruka s militant poetry the whole testifies to a surprisingly coherent imaginary one that goes beyond the balkanization of the caribbean archipelago dans ce collectif bilingue le concept de guerrier de l imaginaire tel que défini par patrick chamoiseau est illustré par un corpus de textes variés plusieurs des articles en français engagent directement le cycle romanesque de l'auteur martiniquais d'autres étendent l'interrogation de la fonction de l'auteur caribéen à l'écriture glissantienne maximinienne et zobéienne. Études en anglais portent sur des écrivains dont le renom n'est plus à faire: Dionne Brand, Edwidge Danticat, Wilson Harris, Jamaica Kincaid, Caryl Phillips, Derek Walcott, mais donnent aussi la parole à des auteurs jusqu'à présent moins étudiés: Robert Antoni, Albert Helman. Enfin quelquesunes des contributions portent sur d'autres terrains de lutte comme la musique afro-brésilienne, le cinéma ou la poésie militante de Mutabaruka. L'ensemble témoigne d'un imaginaire étonnamment confluant au-delà de la balkanisation de l'archipel caribéen.

With the rise of myriad forms of identity politics which corresponds to a new trinity formula of leftist analysis of capitalism, class, race and gender major currents in the contemporary radical left in the past decades have shifted their aim. This book addresses the ideological, theoretical and practical dilemmas of the contemporary academic and activist left from a Marxist standpoint, covering contemporary developments in left thought and ideology and putting them into social and historical context. The chapters provide a theoretical confrontation with the myriad ways it has tended to accommodate itself to neoliberal ideology rather than fundamentally opposing it. The contrast between the Marxian emancipatory project and what the progressive left has made of it has never been more glaring than now, a time in which capital no longer seems to confront a political barrier. It is this predicament that the conformist rebellion evaluates for a renewed approach to emancipation from capital.

Panthée presents a collective reflection relating to the changes that affected the Graeco-Roman empire and over the long term altered its religious landscapes fifty years after the foundation of the series epro the volume aims to avoid the division between the supposedly roman or graeco roman and the oriental by linking the available information relating the different major areas such as the relation between local and global the place of emotions in relation to soteriological and initiatory aspects strategies of integration and negotiation of identities for the first time the leading specialists in every field bring their approaches into contact with one another and jointly construct a picture of practices and conceptual frames which in their diversity and inter action model a religious universe whose complexity will help to understand our modern globalising world panthée propose une réflexion collective sur les mutations qui ont affecté l'empire gréco romain et ont progressivement remodelé ses paysages religieux cinquante ans après la création de la collection des epro ce livre ambitionne de dépasser le clivage entre ce qui serait romain ou gréco romain et ce qui serait oriental en articulant les données disponibles autour de quelques thèmes majeurs comme les jeux d'échelle entre local et universel la place du registre des émotions en relation avec les dimensions sotériologiques et mystériques les stratégies d'intégration et de négociation des identités pour la première fois les meilleurs spécialistes venus de tous les horizons croisent leurs approches et construisent ensemble un tableau des pratiques et des cadres de pensée qui dans leur diversité et dans leur interaction dessinent les contours d'un univers religieux dont la complexité aide à penser le monde moderne de la globalisation this book by eminent author jasbir jain explores the many ways the diaspora remembers and reflects upon the lost homeland and their relationship with their own ancestry history of the homeland culture and the current political conflicts amongst the questions this book asks is how does the diaspora relate to their home and what is the homeland's relationship to the diaspora as representatives of the contemporary homeland in another country the last is an interesting point of discussion since the present of the homeland and of the diaspora cannot be equated the transformations that new locations have brought about as migrants have travelled through time and interacted with the politics of their settled lands africa fiji the caribbean islands the uk the us canada as well as the countries created out of british india such as pakistan and bangladesh have altered their affiliations and perspectives this book gathers multiple dispersions of emigrant writers and artistes from south asia across time and space to the various homelands they relate to now the word write is used in its multiplicity to refer to creative expression as an inscription as connectivity and remembrance writing is also a representation and carries its own baggage of poetics and aesthetics categories which need to be problematised vis à vis the writer and his/her emotional location the art of optical illusion has been an integral part of painting since antiquity when it was used as a yardstick by which to judge an artist s level of mastery this book presents a fascinating overview of the different methods of illusion practiced by artists over hundreds of years organised into five chapters optical illusions distortions and hidden images de figurations questioning perception and overstepping reality it brings together artists from various time periods and disciplines since he immigrated to canada two decades ago neil bissoondath has consistently refused the role of the ethnic and sought to avoid the burden of hyphenation a burden that would label him as an east indian trinidadian canadian living in quebec bissoondath argues that the policy of multiculturalism with its emphasis on the former or ancestral homeland and its insistence that there is more important than here discourages the full loyalty of canada s citizens through the 1971 multiculturalism act canada has sought to order its population into a cultural mosaic of diversity and tolerance seeking to preserve the heritage of canada s many peoples the policy nevertheless creates unease on many levels transforming people into political tools and turning historical distinctions into stereotyped commodities it encourages exoticism highlighting the differences that divide canadians rather than the similarities that unite them selling illusions is neil bissoondath s personal exploration of a politically motivated public policy with profound private ramifications a policy flawed from its inception but implemented with all the political zeal of a true believer
